Compatriots,

Nov. 1, 2008

I cannot call you all by name, but I want you to know how much I appreciate all the “muskets” that showed up today for the dedication of the statue in Baxley. Also, Tommy and George for the cannons, and all the artillery people. What a great display of brotherhood and respect for our ancestors. We had some 4th Brigade help, Cochran and Eastman, too. Thank you Camp Davis, Tattnall Invincibles, Montgomery Sharpshooters, Robert Toombs, and Appling Grays. It really makes a big difference when we join together to show our numbers and the unity between Camps. Great job. If I left anybody out, forgive me.

Thank you all,
Al Perry.

Compatriots,

Ya’ll know by now that I am a slow thinker. My apologies for leaving out the McLeod-Moring Camp in my “Thank yous.” It was a great turn-out and a very successful Dedication Service last Saturday in Baxley. The strength you show when you join together to support each other is a testimony to our lineage. We had representatives from the 4th, 5th, and 6th Brigades present.
